Accolades & Community Involvement

Accolades

"There are a couple of gay-welcoming accommodations. The Silverbow Inn offers comfortable accommodations and a gay-popular bakery." – OutTraveler.com

"Juneau's oldest bakery...where rooms are furnished with antiques." – Travel & Leisure

"The young owners brought a cosmopolitan sensibility to Juneau." – Frommer's

"The best smelling breakfast spot in town." – Let's Go

"Quaint guest rooms with cheerful, bright décor." – AAA Tourbook

"Silverbow is a fine spot for lunchtime sandwich and soup. The atmosphere is homespun and funky, and the street side location keeps the crowd at bay." – Moon Handbooks Alaska

"At lunch look for salads and sandwiches. This is a casual place to hang out, read the paper or write a post card." – Lonely Planet Alaska

"Out front there is a wonderfully relaxed eat-in bakery and coffee bar with big windows that catch the morning sun. Bagels and superb pastries bolster a menu of home made breads used for sandwiches." – The Rough Guide to Alaska
